NIN NEWS SERVICE

RAMGARH, JAN 21

To generate awareness about 'Bet Bachao, Beti Padhao Abhiyan', Women Development Cell of Government Degree College Ramgarh, today organized an Online Poster Making Competition to mark the occasion of 'Save Girl Child'. The event was organized under the aegis of Prof. (Dr.) Meeru Abrol, Principal of the college. The aim of this competition is to spread awareness among the masses on the topic 'Save Girl Child'.

The theme was aligned with the theme of the United Nations 'My Voice, Our Equal Future' aiming at the progress of the girl child, the foundation of which starts with education.

The participation was open to all the students of the college.

Dr. Bashir Ahmad Sheikh, Department of Political Science coordinated the event. He encouraged the students to compete with zest and also direct efforts towards empowering girls and making them ready to face the challenges in future.

in the poster making competition. Students not only presented their posters but also shared their views on theme. Participants were judged on the basis of relevance, originality, artistic composition, and creativity.

Winner of the Poster Making Competition 'Save Girl Child' were Deepika Kundal (1st Semester), First Runner Up was Tarun Singh (Vth Semester), Second Runner Up was Sahil Kumar (1st Semester).

The event was organized and executed under the convener ship Women Development Cell of Government Degree College Ramgarh.

Sharma. The event was successful in its aim to celebrate the girl child, spread the message across of the importance of treating girls fairly, with dignity and equality and drive efforts that fulfill their rights not just benevolently for them but in partnership with them.

Every year, National Girl Child Day is celebrated on 24th of January as a National Observance Day for the Girl Child, with an aim to encourage the birth of girl child in our society and provide better education, her by promoting the girls' position in the society for a better life.

GDC Ramgarh organizes seminar on “Violation of Children Rights”

EARLY TIMES REPORT

SAMBA, Dec 22: A seminar on "Violation of Rights of Children" was held today by the Department of Political Science, Government Degree College (GDC) Ramgarh under the banner "Know Your Constitution" as a part of "Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav".

The event was organized under the guidance of Prof. (Dr.) Meeru Abrol, Principal of the college. On the onset of the event, welcome address was delivered by Dr. Bashir Ahmad Sheikh, Department of Political Science. He advocated the protection of child rights since children constitute one-third of the total population of the world. Moreover, they are future citizens of the country. Dr Narinder Singh in his presentation shed light on the Child Labour especially among Tribal Children. According to him, child labour is still a big social problem even after the attainment of 75 years of Independence. Dr Pinky Rakwal in her presentation discussed the significance of child rights in detail by supplementing it with major social and economic issues hampering the implementation of child rights.

Sonia Devi (IIIrd Semester), Amanpreet Kour (IIIrd Semester) and Nitin Sharma (Vth Semester) students of the campus also participated enthusiastically and delivered talk on the topic. Concluding remarks and vote of thanks was delivered by Dr. Ekta Rani, Department of Hindi. All the teaching and non-teaching members of the college were present on the occasion. Last but not the least, students of the college gave patient listening to make this event successful.
